Great athlete.

Pity, he doesn't stand a chance here.

Reason why you can't just let any software run your critical lending and collections applications.

There are the BIG guys. Enormous. Powerful. And frankly, quite stodgy, when it comes to delivering focused, mission critical solutions in a fast paced and extremely complex field of banking and financial services.

And then, there's Nucleus. Lean. Sharp. Swift. And trained for over 15 years, in just your arena. In other words, the specialist, with a string of victories in over 30 countries.

Consider FinnOne Lending from Nucleus. The specialized lending solution created to deliver exactly the efficiencies desired by you. Really, really BIG on performance. So now you know why the biggest players are coming running to us.
